The city of Read-ing-vices peculiar advantages for the successful operation of such a forge. It is within 58 miles of Philadelphia, connected therewith by the Readin, Radirond, and the Sciuxi-Rill (160 ton) canal, 128 miles by sail direct from New York, 128 from Bastimore, 54 from Havidong, and 54 from the Schuylkill coal rection, where the best anthracite coal can be placed at the furness doors for about $2.5 per ton. Reading is situated in one of the finest arrivational districts of Pennsylvania, has a population of 25,000, and is noted for its general nealth and the purity of its water. As Becks country contains more furnaces than any other in the United States, iron of every description can be presured by the forges at the lowest prices. Title clear of all incumbrance. Possession given immediately, and forms made casy to milt nurchasers. The Forge is in complete order, and is furnished with every messeary tool and appart chance to commence work immediately on laking possession. It is a property well worth the attention of those engaged in the above business.
